

Study Tips

We want you to gain the best possible results for your up-coming exams. So here is a collection of study tips and tools University of Auckland have curated for you to help you Achieve the Amazing.

For inspiration for your room, check out these great study spaces

Use this study tool to make a schedule that will help you keep your study on track

Creating a study group with friends is a great way to stay motivated - and you'll hear ideas and opinions you might not have considered!

Here are some great ways to exercise your brain for optimal memory retention

Take control on exam day - don't let exam day control you!

6 Study in small blocks

Here's a scientific look at why small chunks of study prepare you better for exams

7 Condense your notes

Good note-taking can mean less stress when it comes to studying

8 Don't do last minute revision

Find out why sleep is much better for you than last minute revision

9 Study your least favorite subjects first

Willpower is a limited resource so putting off that tough subject means you might run out of steam

10 Don't get distracted

Staying focused is key to effective study. Here are 10 top tips for staying focused