

St Hilda's Collegiate
Careers Evening

Thursday

22 June 2017

6.30pm St Hilda's Chapel

GUEST SPEAKER:

Anna Ross, Old Girl
2016 Young Australian
Business Women of the Year
Founder and Director of
Kester Black

Followed by:

An opportunity for students and families to hear the career pathways of three pre-booked presenters of their choice. Their stories will include their last year of secondary school, how this transitioned to tertiary study if applicable, a 'day in the life' of their chosen profession and where they see themselves in five to ten years. Presenters will also focus on career resiliency and the soft skills they have found most valuable in their career journey.

PRESENTERS BIOGRAPHIES
AND BOOKING DETAILS COMING
SOON